CONCEPT OF POSITION:

The Attorney represents the Department in a variety of administrative actions referred by the Community Care Licensing Division. The incumbent provides legal advice to the employees of the Community Care Licensing Division and works cooperatively with the Attorney General's Office on matters involving these cases.

A. RESPONSIBILITIES OF POSITION:

40% - Analyzes and prepares pleadings and legal briefs for Community Care Licensing Division (CCLD) enforcement administrative hearings; develops evidence, strategies, and tactics in the application of evidentiary rules, hearsay exception statutes, and other trial-related theory, in order to litigate cases referred by the CCLD to take legal administrative actions before the Office of Administrative Hearings. Works closely with assigned paralegals and legal support staff in the preparation of legal files in advance of hearings.

30% - Regularly appears and represents the Department before Administrative Law Judges in formal hearings throughout the state representing the interests of those being cared for in or residing in community care facilities such as foster homes, group homes, child care centers, family child care homes, residential facilities for the elderly and adult residential facilities. Prosecutes cases that jeopardize the health and safety of children, the elderly and dependent adults in community care facilities. Negotiates settlement and stipulation resolutions in lieu of hearings when appropriate.

15% - Provides legal advice to CCLD investigators, licensing analysts, and managers, public officials and other employees of the Department's CCLD on licensing enforcement regulations.

10% - Works cooperatively with the Attorney General's Office with regard to writs and other civil actions involving the Department. May appear in Superior Court.

5% - Provides written responses to public inquiries including public record requests and correspondence and performs other duties as appropriate.

B. SUPERVISION RECEIVED:

The Attorney reports to and receives general supervision from a Supervising Attorney, and/or an Assistant Chief Counsel.

C. ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITY:

None.

D. PERSONAL CONTACTS:

The Attorney has extensive contacts within and outside the Department and must work cooperatively with a variety of individuals and organizations and maintain the confidence and respect of others.

E. ACTIONS AND CONSEQUENCES:

Attorneys in this position deal with sensitive issues involving the Community Care Licensing Division. Failure to provide sound legal advice and exercise good judgment could result in civil liability against the Department, an adverse decision in the administrative matter and failure to adequately protect clients of licensed facilities.

F. OTHER INFORMATION:

Frequent travel (which may be out of town and/or overnight) for hearings and to meet with clients and other witnesses is required. The position is located in a high rise state building, and office space is standard in a smoke-free environment. Employees assigned to the Legal Division are subject to a criminal record background check clearance by the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
