Essential Functions (including percentage of time)

35% Plan, organize, and direct the work of QAPS to carry out its mission accurately and within specific time constraints. Actively monitor workload and production in each of the section groups to maintain a balanced workflow through periodic cycles of heavy workload. Generate and review status reports, redirecting existing resources across groups and identifying the needs for staff coverage at peak workload and production times for the following groups:

1. Quality Assurance and Production Section (QAPS): Oversee analysts in issuance, training, and quality assurance over the branch, identifying conflicts between California law and federal requirements established by the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004 (Intel Reform), and the Real ID Act.

2. Scanning, Batching, Imaging Group (SBIG): SBIG reviews and evaluates all incoming requests for amendments to vital records and certified copies of vital records to determine and initiate appropriate disposition.

3. CRTS Entry Group (CEG): CEG keys information from customer requests into Center Request Tracking System (CRTS).

4. Certified Processing Group (CPG): CPG conducts manual searches for vital records that are not identified by the CRTS database. CPG maintains and searches indexes for document filing, identification, and retrieval. CPG initiates the process for making certified copies of vital records.

30% Responsible for monitoring and responding to inquiries and activities related to banknote security paper on which vital records are issued. Oversee the development of policies and procedures to implement security and fraud prevention standards with federal guidelines. Assist and provide guidance in the preparation of recommendations for legislative, regulatory, and policy changes at all levels.

20% Select, evaluate, and train subordinate supervisors to implement existing and revised procedures to ensure or improve overall efficiency of vital records operation. Evaluate the performance of subordinate supervisors and analysts and review evaluations of employee performance prepared by subordinate supervisors. Recruit personnel to fill vacant positions. Ensure new staff are well trained and all staff are provided ongoing training and cross-trained to maintain optimum production. Maintain training manuals, process Public Records Act requests, develop Policy and Procedures, and assist with customer service on the QAPS phone line.

10% Maintain working relationships and coordinate activities with the following:

1. Local registrars, county clerks, and county recorders in all California counties. Ensure uniform compliance with statutes affecting vital records issuance through frequent contact at all levels, including providing local offices copies of records that are missing from county databases, reviewing/redacting records issued by counties from the statewide database, or providing copies of records that have been amended or established through various registration methods at the state levels (i.e., adoption, paternity establishment, delayed or court order delayed). Provide periodic orientation seminars and tours for newly appointed county staff.

2. Departmental Business Services relative to office space, telecommunications, equipment, supplies, and maintenance.

3. Human Resources Division regarding hiring and personnel management, including grievances and disciplinary action, classification, and bargaining unit contract issues.

4. National partners working with vital records.

Marginal Functions (including percentage of time)

5% Develop the budget for the section based on prior experience and legislative mandates or other changes to office procedures. Perform other work-related duties as assigned.

I certify this duty statement represents an accurate description of the essential functions of this position. I have discussed the duties and have provided a copy of this duty statement to the employee named above.

I have read and understand the duties and requirements listed above and am able to perform these duties with or without reasonable accommodation. (If you believe reasonable accommodation may be necessary, or if unsure of a need for reasonable accommodation, inform the hiring supervisor.)
