- 25% Develop personnel policies and procedures and makes presentations on various aspects of the personnel management program. Advise management on all facets of civil service laws, rules, regulations, policies, and procedures. Conduct research and recommend solutions to personnel management problems and develop process improvements. Conduct desk audit reviews and analysis. Conduct research on various areas of classification and pay; conduct complex classification and pay and organizational studies; prepare specification revisions and SPB items for new or revised classifications. May act as project manager on classification and pay projects.

Marginal Duties

- 5% Perform other duties as required, consistent with the specifications of the classification.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

Knowledge of: Principles, practices, and trends of public and business administration, management, and supportive staff services such as budgeting, personnel, and management analysis; government functions and organization; and methods and techniques of effective conference leadership.

Ability to: Reason logically and creatively and utilize a variety of analytical techniques to resolve complex governmental and managerial problems; develop and evaluate alternatives; analyze data and present ideas and information effectively both orally and in writing; consult with and advise administrators or other interested parties on a wide variety of subject-matter areas; gain and maintain the confidence and cooperation of those contacted during the course of work; coordinate the work of others, act as a team or conference leader; and appear before legislative and other committees.

Working Conditions

The California Energy Commission offers a hybrid workplace model that is designed to support a distributed workforce of both office-based and remote-centric workers that relies on a high level of telework. Limited-in person attendance and occasional travel may be required based on the needs of the division. Regular and consistent attendance - whether office-based or remote-centric - is essential to the successful performance in this position. This position is remote centered which means the incumbent works 50 percent or more of their time monthly from an alternate work location (i.e., teleworking).

Diversity and Inclusion Statement

As a State agency serving all Californians, the California Energy Commission is committed to being an organization that embodies diversity, equity, and inclusion. The Energy Commission plays an active and meaningful role in creating an environment that enables each employee to thrive.
