| CLASSIFICATION                              |  |   | DWR POSITION NUMBE  | R  | SAP POS  | SITION NUME  | BER  | MCR  |
|---|--|---|---|--|--|--|--|--|
| Senior Environmental Scientist (Specialist) |  |   | 4400-0765-008   |  | 50050808   |  | )8   | 1  |
| APPOINTEE                                   |  |   | SAP PERSONNEL NO. DIVISION/SECTION  |  |  | •  |  |  |
| Vacant                                      |  |   | TBD   | Regional   | Assistanc  | e/NRO/Pro  | ogram Coo  | rdination  |
|   | GAINING IDENTIFIER ment Related BU: Sup  | pervisory Relate  | ed BU: Cor  | nfidential Rela  | ated BU:   | V   | Rank and   |  |
| RESPONSIBILITIES                            | S EXERCISED  | IMMEDIATE SI  | JPERVISOR (Print)   |  | SUPERVISO  | R'S CLASSIF  |  |  |
| ☐ Supervis                                  | ory   Lead Person  | Michelle Do   | oley  |  | Supervisi  | ng Engine  | eering Geol  | ogist  |
| APPROVED BY (Pe                             | ersonnel Analyst's Name)   | •   |   | •  | -  | DATE   |  |  |
| Ariel Stone                                 |  |   |   |  |  |  | 8/29/2025  | 5  |
| Percent ofTime                          |  |   | Activity  |  |  |  |  |  |
|   | POSITION SUMMARY: Under the general direct Section of the Regional and the Climate Change Resources (DWR) Region evaluate climate change impacts under the Wate Climate Adaptation Strategic Plan, the Califor (SGMA); providing technic groups, and Groundwate incorporate climate change addition, the RCCS will climate change adaptation utreach and education ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS | Planning Be Program Nonal Climate impacts to resilience tegy, the De ornia Water nical assister Sustainange into the nt and reposadvance and on climate | ranch, Division of lanager, the incume Change Specialise the State's water a Portfolio, Californe Plan, and the Susance to Integrated bility Agencies (Girl Planning and prorting in coordinating support the identical gation programs a | Regional abent will st (RCCS), sector; de tainable (Regional SAs), Triberoject plar on with or attification, and project | Assistand act as a E providing eveloping er Supply Plan, the Groundwares, and long efforther Departments, and pets, and pets, and pets, and pets, and pets | ce, North Departme g experti g strategi Strategy Climate anageme ocal wate orts; and artment p | nern Regionern R | on Office, er lyze and ot to these fornia rogram act planning s to with In |
| 45%   | This position requires the consistent, and predictal meetings, including one on public roadways. The Advance adaptation pla Plan to improve its resil Project on climate change strategies with the goal meadow restoration, for   | he incumbeable attendagoing traininge specific esnning for theience to clingge impacts,of restoring                         | ince; to exercise song and developments sential functions the Upper Feather Romate change; prover and contribute to go and protecting the   | ound judgntal oppoare:River Wateride technthe asses  | gment; anrtunities,ershed unical suppssment ofFeather R  | d particiwhich mder DWRort to thef vulneraliver Wate                       | pate in a variate  | variety of e driving  Action ater d  |
| SUPERVISOR'                                 | I'S STATEMENT: I HAVI   | E DISCUSSE  | D THE DUTIES OF TI  | HE POSITION  | ON WITH T  | HE EMPI  | OYEE.  |  |
| SUPERVISOR'S NA                             |  |   | PERVISOR'S SIGNATURE  |  |  |  | TE   |  |
| Michelle Dool                               | ,  | >   | >   |  |  |  |  |  |
| EMPLOYEE'S                                  | STATEMENT: I HAVI  |   | D WITH MY SUPERVY OF THE DUTY STA   |  | DUTIES O   | F THE PO   | SITION AN  | D HAVE   |
| EMPLOYEE'S NAME (Print)                     |  |   | PLOYEE'S SIGNATURE DATE   |  | .TE  |  |  |  |
| Vacant                                      |  | >   |   |  |  |  |  |  |
| vacant                                      |  |   | ·   |  |  |  |  |  |

DWR 525 (Rev. 1/09) Page 1 of 4

| CLASSIFICATION     |  | DWR POSITION NUMBI  | R  | SAP POSITION NUMBER  | MCR   |
|--------------------|--|---|--|--|---|
|                    | nmental Scientist (Specialist)   | 4400-0765   |  | 50050808   | 1   |
| APPOINTEE          |  | SAP PERSONNEL NO.   | DIVISION/SI  | ECTION   |   |
| Vacant             | T  | TBD   | Regional   | Assistance/NRO/Program (   | Coordination  |
| Percent ofTime |  | Activity  | ′  |  |   |
|                    | development of adaptation plantdevelopment of shared guidantIRWM and GSA planning groupthe Upper Feather River; coordipartners and local water agencicompile, and provide relevant intechnical portion of planning arclimate change impact analysisdesired by local agencies, on theGroundwater Sustainability Plant   | ce and tools for adapt is with analysis requirinate with others with ies including IRWM, Gonformation, data, and and project grant application and a fee incorporation of clins (GSPs) prepared for | ation planded to consin the Deptis SAs, Tribate parameter cations and mate charmater charmate | ning; assist local agencies ider climate change ada artment and other State al and other groups to rest for this analysis. Evalud IRWM plans related to strategies; provide inputinge adaptation strategies          | es, Tribes, aptation in and federal esearch, uate the regional t, at a level s into                 |
| 35%                | Review reports, and give present between climate change and was resources management to address water agencies and association updates for the implementation Adaptation Strategy; respond to assistance by participating on the strategies for the North Coast, Sthe climate adaptation and mitig Department's Climate Action Plays   | ater management and ress the issue; coordins, and federal, Tribal, of California's Water public requests for eachnical teams plant Sacramento River and gation implications of                      | on the imnate theseState, andSupply Stclimate infing for imI North Lal   | portance of cross-sector activities with other DW docal officials; provide rategy and the Californic formation; provide region pacts and preparing adathontan Hydrologic Regionanagement strategies upon activities. | r integratedI'R programsreportinga Climatenalptationons; assessnder the |
| 20%                | Support DWR's data activity by environmental data for use in the California Water Plan Update collaboration and sharing of cliporganizations; review and contribute anticipated effects of climate presentations on these impacts Knowledge (TEK)/Traditional Infeather River watershed and Notest Control of the California Control of the California Californi | ne California Hydroclie, and other reports,mate data and analysribute to research repe change on Californs; communicate and sdigenous Knowledgeorthern Region.          | mate Repoprojects alis among lorts, analya rivers alupport sci(TIK) adap   | ort, various water resourdnd planning activities; aslocal, regional, Tribal andze observed climate treend waterways, and giveence-based and Tribal Eotation planning for the U               | ces models, ssist with the distate ands, evaluate cological   |
|                    | All employees are expected to comport program purchases, documentation should be of surprogram with defensible inform SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS:  | contracts, travel, and comple   | meetings   | by the required deadline   | es. This  |
|                    | Must possess a valid California meetings, conferences, training  | driver's license to dr  | ive a perso  | onal, rental, or State vehi  | iala ta   |

DWR 525 (Rev. 1/09) Page 2 of 4

| - Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes   | APPOINTEE  Vacant | mental Scientist (Specialist)  | 4400-0765-             | 000        | 50050000                    | 1 .          |  |  |  |
|--|-------------------|--|------------------------|------------|-----------------------------|--------------|--|--|--|
| Percent of Activity  PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS: - Field work requires strenuous physically activities, including: - Overnight lodging on short notice, for several consecutive days at a time, traveling to facilitie field locations by vehicle, boat, or other means of transportation Travel independently to remote areas Flexibility for working irregular hours, including weekends and holidays Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an out motor Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terre access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites Swimming or staying afloat Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather condition Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area team   | /acant            |  | 7-700-07-00-           | 008        | 50050808                    | 1            |  |  |  |
| PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS: - Field work requires strenuous physically activities, including: - Tovernight lodging on short notice, for several consecutive days at a time, traveling to facilitie field locations by vehicle, boat, or other means of transportation Travel independently to remote areas Flexibility for working irregular hours, including weekends and holidays Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an out motor Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites Swimming or staying afloat Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather condition Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspectio c   |                   |  | SAP PERSONNEL NO.      | DIVISION/S | SECTION                     | •            |  |  |  |
| PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS: - Field work requires strenuous physically activities, including: - Overnight lodging on short notice, for several consecutive days at a time, traveling to facilitie field locations by vehicle, boat, or other means of transportation Travel independently to remote areas Flexibility for working irregular hours, including weekends and holidays Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an out motor Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites Swimming or staying afloat Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather condition Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES:  This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspectio  | Percent of        |  | TBD                    | Regiona    | I Assistance/NRO/Program C  | oordination  |  |  |  |
| - Field work requires strenuous physically activities, including: - Overnight lodging on short notice, for several consecutive days at a time, traveling to facilitie field locations by vehicle, boat, or other means of transportation Travel independently to remote areas Flexibility for working irregular hours, including weekends and holidays Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an outf motor Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites Swimming or staying afloat Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspectio coordination, and assist agenci   | Time              |  | Activity               |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Field work requires strenuous physically activities, including: - Overnight lodging on short notice, for several consecutive days at a time, traveling to facilitie field locations by vehicle, boat, or other means of transportation Travel independently to remote areas Flexibility for working irregular hours, including weekends and holidays Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an outf motor Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites Swimming or staying afloat Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspectio coordination, and assist agenci   |                   | DUVEICAL DECUIDEMENTS:   |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| -Overnight lodging on short notice, for several consecutive days at a time, traveling to facilitie field locations by vehicle, boat, or other means of transportation.  - Travel independently to remote areas Flexibility for working irregular hours, including weekends and holidays Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an outl motor Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites Swimming or staying afloat Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather condition Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES:  This position requires the ability to: - Utilitze a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspectio coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including   |                   | •  | nhysically activities  | including  | 1 .                  |              |  |  |  |
| field locations by vehicle, boat, or other means of transportation.  - Travel independently to remote areas.  - Flexibility for working irregular hours, including weekends and holidays.  - Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment.  - Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an outl motor.  - Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites.  - Swimming or staying afloat.  - Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways.  - Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects.  - Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather condition.  - Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild.  - Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES:  This position requires the ability to:  - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  - Sit for long periods of time.  - Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  - Be detail oriented.  - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, it position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspectio coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earth |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Travel independently to remote areas Flexibility for working irregular hours, including weekends and holidays Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an outt motor Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites Swimming or staying afloat Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, it position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspectio coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as establish   |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Flexibility for working irregular hours, including weekends and holidays Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an outl motor Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites Swimming or staying afloat Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, filed inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assis                                     |                   | _ · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·  |                        | ioportuti  |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Operating a pickup truck or other vehicle off-road on rugged or uneven terrain to and from si including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment.  - Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an outl motor.  - Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites.  - Swimming or staying afloat.  - Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways.  - Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects.  - Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather condition.  - Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild.  - Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES:  This position requires the ability to:  - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  - Sit for long periods of time.  - Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  - Be detail oriented.  - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Daro Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspectio coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency prepared |                   |  |                        | ekends a   | nd holidays.                |              |  |  |  |
| including possible transportation of trailer-based equipment.  Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an outt motor.  Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites.  Swimming or staying afloat.  Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways.  Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects.  Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild.  Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to:  Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  Sit for long periods of time.  Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  Be detail oriented.  Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.                             |                   |  | •                      |            | •                           | rom sites.   |  |  |  |
| Proficiency in handling and launching boats, with the capability to attach and operate an outlimotor.  Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites.  Swimming or staying afloat.  Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways.  Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects.  Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild.  Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to:  Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  Sit for long periods of time.  Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  Be detail oriented.  Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, it position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspectio coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.  |                   |  |                        |            |                             | , ,          |  |  |  |
| motor.  - Ability to traverse and transport equipment (up to 50lbs) over steep, remote, and rugged terra access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites.  - Swimming or staying afloat.  - Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways.  - Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects.  - Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES:  This position requires the ability to:  - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  - Sit for long periods of time.  - Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  - Be detail oriented.  - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California   |                   |  | -                      | -          | ility to attach and operate | an outboa    |  |  |  |
| access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites.  - Swimming or staying afloat.  - Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways.  - Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects.  - Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditio  - Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild  - Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES:  This position requires the ability to:  - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  - Sit for long periods of time.  - Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  - Be detail oriented.  - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.  |                   | •  |                        |            | ,                           |              |  |  |  |
| access sites, including areas without established roads, to reach remote work sites.  - Swimming or staying afloat.  - Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways.  - Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects.  - Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditio  - Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild  - Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES:  This position requires the ability to:  - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  - Sit for long periods of time.  - Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  - Be detail oriented.  - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California  |                   |  | t equipment (up to 50  | Olbs) ove  | r steep, remote, and rudge  | ed terrain f |  |  |  |
| - Swimming or staying afloat.  - Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways.  - Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects.  - Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES:  This position requires the ability to:  - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  - Sit for long periods of time.  - Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  - Be detail oriented.  - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California  |                   | •  |                        | •          |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Working in and around swift and deep flowing waterways Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California  |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Remaining stable while wading in and crossing streams while moving heavy objects Capacity to endure field work for extended hours under a variety of extreme weather conditionally to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California   |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wild - Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.   |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Work with tools, concrete, steel, and wood.  ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dan Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, to position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.   |                   | - Capacity to endure field work fo   | or extended hours un   | ider a va  | riety of extreme weather c  | onditions.   |  |  |  |
| ABILITIES: This position requires the ability to: - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office Sit for long periods of time Strong word processing and report preparation skills Be detail oriented Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.   |                   | - Ability to work in densely vegetated areas, with the potential for encountering pests and wildlife |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| This position requires the ability to:  - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  - Sit for long periods of time.  - Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  - Be detail oriented.  - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.  |                   | - Work with tools, concrete, stee  | l, and wood.           |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| This position requires the ability to:  - Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.  - Sit for long periods of time.  - Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  - Be detail oriented.  - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:  This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.  |                   | ARII ITIES:  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| <ul> <li>Utilize a variety of software, including Microsoft Office.</li> <li>Sit for long periods of time.</li> <li>Strong word processing and report preparation skills.</li> <li>Be detail oriented.</li> <li>Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.</li> <li>Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.</li> <li>OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.</li> </ul>   |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| <ul> <li>Sit for long periods of time.</li> <li>Strong word processing and report preparation skills.</li> <li>Be detail oriented.</li> <li>Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.</li> <li>Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.</li> <li>OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.</li> </ul>   |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Strong word processing and report preparation skills.  - Be detail oriented.  - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.  |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| <ul> <li>Be detail oriented.</li> <li>Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbal and written form.</li> <li>Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.</li> </ul> OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.  |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| and written form.  - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.  |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| - Perform multiple tasks with precision, accuracy, and a commitment to neatness.  OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.   |                   | - Work independently and maintain effective communication with all levels of staff, both verbally    |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES: This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparedness response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California.  |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California   |                   | - Perform multiple tasks with pre  | cision, accuracy, and  | d a comn   | nitment to neatness.        |              |  |  |  |
| This position provides necessary support to the Divisions of Flood Management, Safety of Dar Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California   |                   | OTHER RESPSONSIBILITIES:   |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| Operations and Maintenance, Engineering, and/or the Public Affairs Office during Governor declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California  |                   |  | y support to the Divis | sions of I | Flood Management, Safety    | of Dams.     |  |  |  |
| declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, the position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California  |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California  |                   | declared emergencies, flood, dam, SWP, and other incidents and emergencies. Additionally, this       |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| coordination, and assist agencies such as Cal OES and FEMA in disaster work, including performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California   |                   | position may participate in emergency operations in the capacity of area teams, field inspection,    |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| other emergencies. This position may also serve in one of the sections as established in the Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California  |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparednes response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California   |                   | performing fieldwork to complete damage survey reports for droughts, flooding, earthquakes, and      |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California  |                   |  |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
|  |                   | Incident Command System to assist the Department in performing its emergency preparedness,           |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
| State Emergency Plan and the Department's Administrative Orders.   |                   | response, recovery, and mitigation functions. These functions are established in the California      |                        |            |                             |              |  |  |  |
|  |                   | State Emergency Plan and the D   | epartment's Adminis    | trative O  | rders.                      |              |  |  |  |

DWR 525 (Rev. 1/09) Page 3 of 4

| CLASSIFICATION                              |   | DWR POSITION NUMBER | ER             | SAP POSITION NUMBER       | MCR        |  |  |  |
|---|---|---------------------|----------------|---------------------------|------------|--|--|--|
| Senior Environmental Scientist (Specialist) |   | 4400-0765-008       |                | 50050808                  | 1          |  |  |  |
| APPOINTEE                                   |   | SAP PERSONNEL NO.   | DIVISION/SEC   |                           |            |  |  |  |
| Vacant                                      |   | TBD                 | Regional As    | ssistance/NRO/Program Co  | ordination |  |  |  |
| Percent ofTime                          | Activity  |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   | DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION:  |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   | All employees are responsible for o   | contributing to an  | inclusive, s   | afe, and secure work env  | vironment  |  |  |  |
|   | that values diverse cultures, perspectives, and experiences, and is free from discrimination. |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   | The Department of Water Resource  | es (DWR) is comm    | itted to its n | nission and employees,    | and we are |  |  |  |
|   | grounded in our commitment to pu  | blic safety. Regu   | lar and cons   | sistent attendance is ess | ential to  |  |  |  |
|   | the successful performance in this  | position.           |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |
|   |   |                     |                |                           |            |  |  |  |

DWR 525 (Rev. 1/09) Page 4 of 4