Job Description

Under the general direction of the Division Director of the Siting, Transmission and Environmental Protection Division, the Program and Project Supervisor serves as the highest-level resource specialist and performs very difficult technical work relating to public utilities along with a variety of supervisory, program evaluation, planning, policy analyses, and formulation activities including technical review and feedback to staff on written work products. The Supervisor leads, supervises, and directs multi-disciplinary team working on a variety of technical, analytical and public policy responsibilities related to the Energy Commission's power plant program and other policy and administrative matters related to the implementation and support of offshore wind, delegated chief building officials, Climate Resilience package, AB525, Strategic Reliability Reserve program (AB205), and SB100 which requires 100 percent renewable energy and zero-carbon resources by 2045, and works to provide a positive working environment for that team. The Supervisor also confers with and assists the Branch Managers, Executive Leadership, and Commissioner leadership on Division policies and objectives and coordinates the work of the section with other sections of the Division on a broad spectrum of subject areas within the unit's portfolio. In addition, the Supervisor represents and supports the Division and California Energy Commission (CEC) in meetings, briefings, conferences, and workshops, engaging other agencies, the Legislature, companies, research organizations, communities, and other stakeholders; participates in investigations and hearings and testifies as an expert witness in proceedings before the California Public Utilities Commission and courts; and prepares correspondence and reports.

Essential Duties

- 20% Directing Unit Activities: Direct and supervise the work activities of a professional staff on a wide range of technical and public policy issues related to developing , implementing, and management of investment plans and requirements for the power plant, tribal, chief building official, and offshore wind activities and other policy and administrative matters related to implementing SB 100 (2021); communicate with staff through routine meetings.
- 20% Managing Team: Lead a high-performing, highly motivated team of technical, scientific, and communications specialists focused on continuous improvement of the Energy Commission's administration and implementation of SB100, building team capabilities through successful hiring and skill development, and fostering a team culture of collaboration, creativity, respect, and excellence. Provide staff training, individual performance assessment, and feedback and coaching to assist staff in meeting and exceeding performance standards; perform direct personnel management activities, including periodic performance evaluations and, as necessary, personnel disciplinary actions to support high performance, morale, and equity across the unit and Division; foster individual and team motivation; assist staff in career development; and complete personnel actions to recruit and promote staff.
- 15% Delivering Products: Support unit in developing and delivering timely, high-quality work products, including written products, presentations and briefings, and other deliverables, with appropriate input from relevant experts and stakeholders, consistent with Division and CEC objectives. Ensure a high degree of quality control (rigorous analytical foundation and meticulous writing technique) over all deliverables.
- 10% Planning and Budgeting: Lead the strategic planning for the unit, including long-term objectives, workplans, stakeholder engagement, and evaluation of workplan implementation, including achievement of objectives, milestones, and goals. Manage the development and implementation of unit budgets.
- 10% Technical Advising: Drawing on technical expertise, advise and support Division management and CEC leadership on a broad spectrum of subject areas within the unit's portfolio. Additionally, serve as a member of the Division's team of supervisors and managers, contributing to the establishment and implementation of Division programs, administrative policies, budget and resource plans, long-term direction, and strategic plans and procedures.
- 10% Presenting: Deliver presentations, present testimony, and represent the CEC at public meetings of the CEC, other government agencies, industry organizations, and other forums such as meetings and conferences with stakeholders, policymakers, and the general public.
- 10% Collaborating and Coordinating: Develop and foster partnerships with relevant local, state, and federal agencies; tribal governments; stakeholder groups; and the public to ensure broad engagement in unit activities and products.

Marginal Duties

- 5% Perform other duties as required, consistent with the specifications of the classification.
