CONCEPT OF POSITION:

Under the direction of a Staff Services Manager I (SSM I), the Associate Governmental Program Analyst (AGPA) county liaison will perform full journey level analytical duties, including written and verbal assignments regarding programs and policies related to the Resource Family Approval (RFA) program, and will function both independently and as a team leader/member. The county liaison will be responsible for regulatory guidance and technical assistance from a regional basis to ensure compliance and consistency with regulations and laws impacting the program. The liaison will conduct reviews of the county administered RFA program, and provide ongoing consultation to counties regarding clarification of applicable laws, regulations and policies, and will work with them to improve the quality and efficiency of the RFA program. The county liaison will closely collaborate and partner with the Technical Assistance and Oversight Unit in Child Family Services Division.

A. RESPONSIBILITIES OF POSITION:

- 30% Assist with conducting biennial on-site case file county reviews of the RFA program. Partner and provide technical assistance to counties to ensure compliance with the Written Directives, applicable laws, policies and procedures. Develop a report of findings, which identifies strengths, issues and barriers that counties may be having with the implementation of the RFA program, as well as any potential training needs, and make recommendations for improvement. Provide ongoing technical assistance and participate in follow-up training if necessary.
- Review and analyze legal documents submitted by the counties to assist with possible administrative actions. Work with county staff and CDSS Regional Offices when applicable to ensure the evidence supports the action requested. Consult regularly with CDSS staff attorneys.
- 15% Provide ongoing consultation to counties regarding clarification of applicable laws, regulations, and policies. Provide guidance to counties regarding RFA implementation.
- Meets with internal and external stakeholders, and other Bureaus and Divisions. Serves as a Departmental liaison, and participates in a wide variety of stakeholder and provider meetings, conferences, workshops, community outreach activities, etc., explaining and disseminating laws, regulations, policies, and procedures as related to RFA.
- 10% Regularly conduct Technical Assistance Resource Family Approval meetings with the counties. Provide updates and county training sessions as appropriate. Attend quarterly statewide county liaison meetings.
- 5% Other duties as assigned.
