NAME:

JOB TITLE: Deputy Attorney General IV

STATEMENT OF DUTIES: The Deputy Attorney General IV in the Land Use and Conservation Section of the Public Rights Division is a well-experienced attorney and must have the ability and capability to personally handle, and oversee the handling of, the more complex, sensitive, varied, and difficult cases. The DAG IV handles a broad range of the more significant legal matters for a large group of State agencies. These include the Resources Agency, Coastal Commission, California's land conservancies, the State Lands Commission, the Division of Oil, Gas, & Geothermal Resources, and the Department of Parks and Recreation. The Deputy Attorney General may also bring independent actions on behalf of the Attorney General. May review and oversee the work of others as a mentor.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED: Under the supervision of the Senior Assistant Attorney General or a Supervising Deputy Attorney General in the Land Use and Conservation Section.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED: None

TYPICAL PHYSICAL DEMANDS: May be required to sit at a computer terminal while performing research and other duties up to six to eight hours a day. Ability to lift case files up to 25 lbs. may be required. Some travel may be required both in and out-of-state.

TYPICAL WORKING CONDITIONS: Enclosed office in a smoke-free environment.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

45% Performs a variety of the more difficult, complex, and sensitive litigation-related functions on behalf of state agencies such as the Resources Agency, Coastal Commission, California's land conservancies, the State Lands Commission, the Division of Oil and Gas, the Department of Parks and Recreation and the Attorney General's Office. These functions include drafting trial court memoranda and appellate briefs, preparing motions for summary judgment, engaging in document discovery and taking depositions.

- 45% Performs the more difficult research and provides experienced legal advice relating to state agencies such as the Resources Agency, Coastal Commission, California's land conservancies, the State Lands Commission, the Division of Oil and Gas, the Department of Parks and Recreation and the Attorney General's Office on sensitive legal matters. Attends various meetings and hearings of these client agencies and provides legal advice on the specific matters the clients are considering as well as providing more general advice on matters such as the open meeting laws.

MARGINAL FUNCTIONS:

- 5% Drafts and analyzes legislation that may affect a client or an area of the law that affects the section's practice, e.g., California Environmental Quality Act. Work with clients' legal staff to prepare regulations that implement the clients' programs.
- 5% Ensures that ProLaw time keeping and case management entries are up-to-date and accurate.
