ESSENTIAL/NON-ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Relative % of Time Required: Essential Function Non-Essential Function

Duties Performed

Represent the CDE, the SSPI and the SBE and its members in complex and difficult legal matters assigned directly or indirectly by the General Counsel or an Assistant General Counsel, typically in response to a request for legal advice request submitted by CDE or SBE staff or executives. Independently and with minimal supervision handle all facets of each legal assignment, including developing strategies to achieve appropriate client goals from conception to disposition, seeking approval when indicated by the Assistant General Counsel and General Counsel. Ensure that procedures in the Attorney Desk Reference Manual are followed when performing the work. Ensure that the work conforms to applicable rules of professional responsibility while handling assignments. Based on client needs and workload, assignments may include: Conducting complex litigation filed in federal or state trial courts or administrative tribunals; Preparing and arguing appellate and amicus curiae briefs in federal and state appellate courts; Conducting legal research, discovery and investigations and providing advice to clients related to education issues and other topics as may be requested; Reviewing, drafting, editing and preparing memoranda, opinions, recommendations, regulations, contracts, letters, management bulletins, legal advisories, guidance documents and other forms of internal and external communications, including those sent in response to requests for public records; Consulting on and negotiating settlements and transactions; (Continued in next box)

Duties Performed

Conducting bill analyses and advising on legislative, policy and regulatory matters; Reviewing administrative complaints and appeals and advising the Department's administrative staff in their adjudicatory and prosecutorial roles; Reviewing and advising on audit and oversight matters; Advising on CDE operational issues including compliance with the state contracting manual, state administrative manual, control agency policy, rules and regulations; and assisting, coordinating and acting as liaison between clients and the California Attorney General's Office, outside counsel and other agency representatives in matters impacting the CDE, SSPI and the SBE and its members. Providing training as may be requested.

Relative % of Time Required: Essential Function Non-Essential Function

Duties Performed

Perform administrative tasks such as attending staff meetings, required trainings, preparing tally sheets, time sheets, and other duties as assigned.

SPECIAL/ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS AND DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS

- Qualified persons with litigation experience
- Excellent writing skills
- Interest in becoming a member of a fast-paced office involved with very challenging issues at the forefront of state and national K-12 public education law
- A background in education-related law, civil rights law or litigation is desirable, but not required

PERSONAL CONTACTS

Interaction with CDE employees; SBE staff; attorneys for students, advocacy groups, school districts and other state agencies; court personnel.
