KNOWLEDGE OF: Legal principles and practices with particular reference to the law of eminent domain; environmental laws and regulations pertaining to the department, including National Environmental Policy Act, California Environmental Quality Act, the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation Liability Act and Resource Conservation and Recovery Act; employment; public tort liability; contracts; and laws governing public officers and agencies; State Contract Act and the statutes and constitutional provisions governing the organization and conduct of the work of the Department of Transportation; law relating to public highways; Federal Highways Act and other Federal aid statutes relating to highways; California law relating to acquisition, financing, administration, and construction of toll bridges; law governing the relations of the Department of Transportation with public utilities and public agencies; trial and appellate court procedure and of the rules of evidence; methods used in appraising real property and of the problems involved in negotiating for rights of way; and safety, health, affirmative action, and labor relations and the processes available to meet these program objectives.

Ability to: Prepare and conduct actions and proceedings before courts, regulatory agencies, administrative bodies; analyze and appraise legal problems and apply legal principles and precedents to particular sets of facts; plan and direct a program of complex legal work and direct the work of assistants; write clear and concise reports and opinions and dictate difficult legal correspondence; present oral statements of fact, law, and argument clearly and logically; maintain the confidence and respect of members of the legal profession and other persons; and effectively contribute to the Department's safety, health, affirmative action, and labor relations objectives.

A greater degree of these Knowledge and Abilities is required at each higher level.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR DECISIONS AND CONSEQUENCES OF ERROR

The Attorney independently prepares letters and memoranda under his/her signature and is responsible for their content. Although legal documents are reviewed by lead attorneys, the Deputy Attorney is ultimately responsible for their content. Errors could result in dismissal of a court case, loss of millions of dollars, court sanctions, and/or loss of credibility with the courts, other public agencies and the public.

PUBLIC AND INTERNAL CONTACTS

The incumbent must consult with all levels of staff in the Legal Division and other administrative programs; have a wide variety of contacts with court staff, judges, departmental staff, private industry, and other governmental agency representatives; and outside witnesses, which requires diplomacy, tact, and professionalism.

PHYSICAL, MENTAL, AND EMOTIONAL REQUIREMENTS

The incumbent must be able to work appropriately and effectively under stress, manage complex and varied workload and meet deadlines. Ability to work on a keyboard; manual dexterity; sitting for long periods; develop and maintain cooperative working relationships; ability to focus for long periods of time. Requires occasional bending, stooping and kneeling.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

While at their base of operation, employees will work in a climate-controlled office under artificial light. However, due to periodic problems with the heating and air conditioning, the building temperature may fluctuate. Will have to perform work duties in different court rooms throughout the state and therefore, this position does require travel.

This position may be eligible for telework. The amount of telework is at the discretion of the Department and based on Caltrans's evolving telework policy. Caltrans supports telework, recognizing that in-person attendance may be required based on operational needs. Employees are expected to be able to report to their worksites with minimum notification if an urgent need notification if an urgent need arises. The selected candidate will be required to commute to the headquarterd location as needed to meet operational needs. Business travel may be required, and reimbursement considers an employee's designated headquarterd location, primary residence, and may be subject to CalHR regulations or applicable bargaining unit contract provisions. All commute expenses to the headquarterd location will be the responsibility of the selected candidate.
