POSITION DESCRIPTION
Under direction of the State Park Interpreter III, the Senior Park Aide (SPA) helps safeguard California State Parks by communicating to the public the complex stories of the redwood forest and the environments which have shaped human life and culture on the North Coast. The SPA will work closely with interpretive staff to provide educational opportunities and experiences for our visitors, partners, local schools, and volunteers. This position is located at Fort Humboldt State Historic Park and may include duties within and adjacent to parks around the North Coast Redwoods District. A uniform is required, as outlined in the California State Parks' uniform handbook. The Senior Park Aide interpreter should be passionate about outdoor life, the natural environment, and cultural history. We desire an employee committed to the mission of State Parks and respect for the front-facing role that this position plays. A sense of professionalism and the willingness to purchase and wear a uniform is required. An appreciation for park visitors and a sense of empathy toward their unique experiences and worldviews is essential. An employee with an ability to collaborate with others, communicate clearly and honestly, and motivated to work independently is especially desired.
