California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) and California Correctional Health Care Services (CCHCS) are committed to transforming the correctional landscape to create safer, more professional, and more fulfilling environments for our employees, the incarcerated population, and those supervised in our communities. Through systemwide improvements grounded in proven and emerging practices, we aim to strengthen rehabilitation, enhance workplace satisfaction, and support successful reentry into the community through our institutions, parole, and community partnerships. Our shared mission is to promote safety, wellness, and human dignity while fostering positive change for all those who live and work within our institutions and communities. CDCR and CCHCS are committed to building an inclusive respectful workplace. We are determined to attract and hire candidates from all communities and empower employees from a variety of backgrounds, perspectives, and personal experiences. We are proud to foster inclusion and drive collaborative efforts at all levels of the Department. Across our organization, our programs work cooperatively to provide the highest level of health care possible to a diverse correctional population. We encourage creativity and ingenuity while treating others fairly, honestly, and with respect, all of which are critical to the success of the CDCR and CCHCS mission.
PRIMARY DOMAIN:
Under the general supervision of the Supervisor I, California Correctional Health Care Services (CCHCS), the Office Technician (Typing) (OT) is assigned as the Timekeeper for Regional Human Resources Office (RHRO) Northern, Central, and Southern facilities. The OT records and keys attendance for Nursing staff, Nursing Services Branch, assigned to posted positions. The OT works closely with the Personnel Specialists (PS) and the Nurse Scheduling Office to provide current time and attendance data. The OT works with the TeleStaff Time and Shift System (timekeeping computer program); this includes posting from the watch sheets and printing reports. The OT is required to independently analyze situations accurately to make corrections to the program; update and correct posting of time usage into TeleStaff in an effective and timely manner. The OT responds to telephone and counter inquiries from staff to assist in resolving time discrepancies. May be required to travel to provide coverage for other CCHCS HR Timekeepers in the region and/or to attend training.
