DIVISION OVERVIEW
The primary mission of SCC is to provide housing, programs and services for minimum and medium custody incarcerated individuals, to aid in their rehabilitation. SCC is responsible for the training and placement of incarcerated individuals in the Conservation Camp Program. SCC administers 27 camps which are located statewide throughout California. Each of the 27 Conservation Camps are a self-contained "prison without walls." The camps are sited in rural or wilderness areas for fire suppression. Incarcerated individuals assigned to camps are dispatched to fight wild land fires and other emergencies when needed and a variety of community work projects. This results in a tremendous cost savings to taxpayers of the State of California.

GENERAL STATEMENT
