| 4. PERSONAL CONTACT (WHO THE EMPLOYEE MAY BE IN CONTACT WITH WHILE PERFORMING DUTIES):The incumbent will have frequent and direct contact with California Governor's Office of Emergency Services (Cal OES) staff including Executive management; leadership and Executive management of other state agencies, local and Tribal government representatives, federal agencies; the Federal Emergency Management Agency, and private sector entities.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                  |
| 5. ACTIONS AND CONSEQUENCES (AS RELATED TO DUTIES PERFORMED):Errors, poor judgments, and lack of professionalism could result in the loss of potential funding for Cal OES. The Supervisor I is responsible for providing clear expectations to and having open communication with staff. Failure to provide these expectations can lead to unmet deliverables, unproductive use of resources, and low morale. In addition, failure to exercise good judgment and perform policy, training, and compliance functions effectively could result in deteriorated staff development, undetected deficiencies, disclosure of inaccurate information in reports, and loss of credibility to the department. |                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                  |

6. EMERGENCY OPERATIONS – ACTIVATION/OPERATIONAL ASSIGNMENT 100%:

May be required to participate in emergency drills, training, and exercises.

Staff need to work effectively under stressful conditions; work effectively & cooperatively under the pressure of short leave time; work weekends, holidays, extended and rotating shifts (day/night). Statewide travel may also be required for extended periods of time and on short notice.

While fulfilling an operational assignment it is important to understand that you are filling a specific "position" and that position reports to a specific Incident Command System (ICS) hierarchy. This is the chain of command that you report to while on this interim assignment.

On Call/Standby/Duty Officer (if applicable)

If assigned on-call, standby or as a Duty Officer, you are required to be ready and able to respond immediately to any contact by Governor's Office of Emergency Services (Cal OES) Management (including contact from the State of California Warning Center) and report to work in a fit and able condition if necessary as requested.

7. JOB DESCRIPTION/GENERAL STATEMENT:

The Supervisor I supports the Incident Command System (ICS) structure, which is utilized to respond to emergencies and disasters within California. Under the direction of the State Operations Center (SOC) Deputy Director, this position is responsible for the supervisory and operational functions for a team of analytical staff in the SOC) Support Unit and personally performing the most difficult and sensitive work. The incumbent exercises a high degree of independence and responsibility while performing the following duties and other job-related work.

In alignment with our commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility, all Cal OES employees are encouraged to promote and foster an equitable and inclusive workplace environment.
