CDCR and CCHCS strive to collaborate with the community to enhance public safety and promote successful community reintegration through education, treatment and active participation in rehabilitative and restorative justice programs. Incumbents establish and maintain cooperative working relationships within the department, other governmental agencies, health care partners, and communities.
DIVISION OVERVIEW
The Division of Adult Parole Operations is responsible for protecting the community by enabling parole agents to play an active role in the local community's public safety plans and supporting the supervised population in their effort to successfully reintegrate into the community. The Division offers a wide range of programs and services and utilizes evidence-based tools to effect long-term behavior change for supervised individuals to earn an opportunity to discharge. The goal is to maintain gains during their parole period that will extend to post supervision. Following their release from incarceration, the Division supervises the most serious and violent persons in the state. The diverse population includes but is not limited to supervised persons with gang affiliations, persons sentenced to a life term, persons with mental illness, persons required to register pursuant to Penal Code 290, and Armstrong class members.
GENERAL STATEMENT

Under the direction of the Parole Agent III, Adult Parole, the Parole Agent II, Supervisor, Adult Parole, will function both as a case carrier and as a supervisor to a subordinate staff of Parole Agents and office staff, when applicable, and oversee the day to day operation of the parole-unit as follows:
