¹ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS are the core duties of the position that cannot be reassigned.
MARGINAL FUNCTIONS are the minor tasks of the position that can be assigned to others.

SUPERVISION OR GUIDANCE EXERCISED OVER OTHERS

Analysts II do not directly supervise. They may act as lead analysts in training assignments and review the work of lower level personnel staff.

KNOWLEDGE, ABILITIES, AND ANALYTICAL REQUIREMENTS

Analysts II have a thorough knowledge of all laws, rules, policies, and practices related to personnel and classification and pay issues in State government and are able to interpret and apply them. Analysts must be familiar with the Department of Transportation's mission and goals and be able to apply the Division of Human Resources' strategic objectives needed to accomplish them. Analysts must have an in-depth knowledge of and the ability to utilize and interpret SCO and SPB on-line databases to obtain information pertaining to employment and payroll history to determine eligibility and appropriate appointment/ pay.

Analysts II must have ability to reason logically and use analytical techniques to solve difficult personnel problems. They must be able to express ideas and present information clearly and logically, both orally and in writing to managers, supervisors, and employees. Analysts demonstrate a positive attitude and a commitment to conduct business in a professional manner in dealing with the public and department clients and provide quality customer service to all customers.

Analysts II review and evaluate requests from managers that cover the broad range of personnel considerations including classifications (including job audits), appointments, transfers, performance problems, non-punitive actions and terminations, and out-of-class experiences. They develop technically sound alternatives that may include developing new approaches and organizational change or revisions. They must be able to provide thorough and complete staff work on personnel related issues to meet immediate needs of operation units.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR DECISIONS AND CONSEQUENCES OF ERROR

Analysts II will have access to very sensitive and confidential information. Careless, accidental, or intentional disclosure of information to unauthorized persons can have far-reaching effects, which may result in civil or criminal actions against those involved.

The incumbent is responsible for complying with the Information Practices Act (IPA) by protecting departmental employees' confidential information, including, but not limited to, social security numbers, medical or employment history, education, financial transactions, or similar information. Failure to protect departmental employee's confidential information may damage DHR's reputation as a confidential organization, may result in employee grievances or lawsuits, and, pursuant to California Civil Code section 1798.55, could result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

Analysts II will be responsible for determining correct appointment method and salary. Failure to do so could result in an illegal appointment and/or overpayment to the employee. This result may lead to action taken against the Department.

Analysts II independently and without review make determinations on the majority of classifications, which are delegated to the Department, in their assigned units. Classification review not delegated to the analyst, and decisions sensitive in nature will be discussed with the supervisor prior to decision. Failure to determine the appropriate classification could lead to mis- allocation of funds.

The Analysts II assist in the development of departmental policy concerning a broad range of personnel management subjects and advise management on the non-punitive personnel actions appropriate for problem personnel situations including salary inequities, medical problems, and employability questions. Failure to advise appropriate action could have the department in violation of state/ federal laws.

PUBLIC AND INTERNAL CONTACTS
