

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
BUREAU OF GAMBLING CONTROL
AUDITS AND COMPACT COMPLIANCE SECTION
420-326-4203-XXX

JOB TITLE: Investigative Auditor II

STATEMENT OF DUTIES: Under close direction from the Investigative Auditor (IA) IV, Supervisor and/or Staff Management Auditor, the Investigative Auditor II performs audit and review activities related to fiscal, operational and administrative audits, as well as minimum internal control standard reviews under the California Tribal-State Gaming Compacts (Compacts) in relation to laws, rules, and regulations. In addition, the IA classification maintains limited peace officer powers granted under Penal Code section 830.13. These powers give the auditor the ability to serve search warrants in a narrowly defined environment, as set forth in the penal code.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED: Supervision from the Investigative Auditor IV, Supervisor and/or Staff Management Auditor.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED: None.

TYPICAL PHYSICAL DEMANDS: Move boxes, weighing no more than 20 pounds, from one location to another, occasionally by vehicle. Retrieve files from low-lying locations.

TYPICAL WORKING CONDITIONS: Office in a smoke-free environment; however, audits take place in gambling establishments and/or tribal casinos on sovereign Tribal land, where smoking may be permitted. Some audit procedures may require availability during late night or early morning hours, or weekends, to observe drop count procedures. Travel is required, which may include out-of-state travel. Hybrid telework schedules are available.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

- 30% Under direction, conducts the less complex, but escalating, responsibilities and duties related to on-site evaluations of financial records of gambling establishments including, but not limited to, reviews of the gambling establishment's internal control systems, cage accountability, revenue determination, credit policies, player bank and chip liability, accounts/vendors payable, taxes, personnel/payroll, purchasing/contracts and compliance procedures, and duties related to Tribal audits including, but not limited to, extensive reviews of the casino's internal control systems, revenue determination, and compliance procedures, according to procedures of the State of California and policies, rules, and regulations of the Gambling Control Act and/or State Tribal Compacts.
- 20% Applies accounting and auditing principles and procedures to work performed and document in audit work papers. Ensures that the methodologies used are consistent with audit program standards, assists senior auditor in verifying that audit schedules and narratives are complete, and that audit findings are properly supported and explained in applicable work papers.

- 20% Attends entrance and exit conferences of different types of audits as well as interviews gambling establishment personnel. Communicates with internal and external stakeholders via email and/or phone. Utilizes computer programs, such as Microsoft Word and Excel, to analyze and organize financial data and draw sound conclusions. Accesses and maintains audit data and files, records audit hours, and under the direction of a senior auditor, assists in preparing audit reports and ensures that audit findings are properly explained.
- 10% Occasionally assists senior staff in performing the more complex tasks related to evaluations of gambling establishments and Tribal audits and acts as Auditor-In-Charge of less complex evaluations of gambling establishments and Tribal audits.
- 10% Under direction from senior auditors, conducts the less complex, but escalating, responsibilities and duties related to audits of financial records of persons who hold any financial or management interest in a gambling establishment, or persons who have applied for a gambling license under the provisions of the Gambling Control Act.
- 10% Special projects, as assigned by the IA IV, Supervisor or Staff Management Auditor, and working under the direction of a senior auditor. Under close supervision of the IA IV, Supervisor and/or Staff Management Auditor, assists Special Agents/Field Representatives from the Compliance and Enforcement Section (CES), which may include reviewing, preparing, and serving search warrants after successfully completing Penal Code 832 Arrest, Search and Seizure training. When assisting CES, auditors may interact with multiple Federal and State agencies. May also independently assist CES. Asset forfeiture duties as directed by supervisor. Participates in trainings to maintain and broaden skill sets that benefit the Bureau of Gambling Control.

I have read and understand the essential functions and typical physical demands required of this job (please check one of the boxes below regarding a Reasonable Accommodation):

- ☐ I am able to complete the essential functions and typical physical demands of the job without a need for a reasonable accommodation.
- ☐ I am able to complete the essential functions and typical physical demands of the job, but will require a reasonable accommodation. I will discuss my reasonable accommodation request with my supervisor.
- ☐ I am unable to perform one or more of the essential functions and typical physical demands of the job, even with a reasonable accommodation.
- ☐ I am not sure that I will be able to perform one or more of the essential functions and typical physical demands of the job, and will discuss the functional limitations I have with my supervisor.

---

Employee Signature

Date

---

Supervisor Signature

Date