3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF POSITION

Summary Statement:
(Briefly describe the position's organizational setting and major functions)

Under the general direction of the Operational Services Unit (OSU) manager, the Office Technician (Typing) serves as the Divisional Receptionist for the Disability Insurance Branch (DIB). The incumbent provides professional administrative support to ensure efficient communication and coordination among internal staff, management, and other EDD divisions. The OT (T) performs a variety of minor technical, and clerical tasks that facilitate daily DIB operations. This position serves internal customers only and has minimal contact with external customers.

Percentage of Duties	Essential Functions
40%	Serves as the primary internal receptionist for the DIB, acting as the first point of contact for staff, managers, guests, and employees from EDD areas. Greets and assists internal visitors in a professional and courteous manner, ensuring a welcoming environment. Responds promptly to internal guest requests, emails, and in-person inquiries, and accurately routes questions and requests to the appropriate personnel or unit. Coordinates internal meeting logistics, including scheduling, setup, and maintaining the cleanliness and organization of DIB conference rooms, common areas, and kitchenettes/breakrooms. Supports branch operations by monitoring reception activities, maintaining a secure and orderly front desk area, and reinforcing customer service standards for all internal interactions. Ensures visitors and guests sign-in for historical visitor tracking logs (i.e., FTI). Develops and manages internal tracking systems for information requests and assignments to ensure timely and accurate processing. Delivers logistical and administrative support for internal training sessions, meetings, and employee recognition events. Performs additional related duties as needed to advance the operational objectives of the DIB. Provides efficient and timely support and services in accordance with established procedures. Identifies to the supervisor any breakdown of established procedures, situations not met by procedures.
35%	Picks up incoming mail and delivers outgoing mail to the mailroom and other designated areas daily. Opens, date-stamps, reviews, sorts, and distributes incoming mail to the appropriate staff and/or mailboxes. Prepares and sends outgoing mail; processes and distributes inter-office mail; and handles shipping through carriers such as UPS, FedEx, and GLS. Develops and maintains internal tracking systems for mail and ensures accurate and timely processing. Coordinates with staff to resolve any issues related to mail delivery or routing.
15%	As needed, prepares professional correspondence, summaries, spreadsheets, and reports for management review. Reviews documents for completeness and accuracy prior to routing or filing. Applies standards from the EDD Correspondence Guide, EDD Brand Manual, and Gregg Reference Manual to ensure accuracy and professionalism. Monitors and tracks sensitive or time-critical documents to maintain accountability and compliance. Assists with shared electronic folders to maintain consistency and accessibility for staff. Coordinates branch-wide communications both virtual and physical and ensures timely distribution of internal directives and notices. Coordinates onboarding activities for new employees, including workspace preparation. Restocks supply areas and other equipment as needed.
5%	Serves as supply clerk, initiating and processing purchase requisitions. Assists with the maintenance of office equipment and manages supply inventories, including ordering, stocking, and record-keeping responsibilities. Provides coverage and backup support to other administrative staff during absences or periods of high workload.
Percentage of Duties	Marginal Functions
