POSITION DESCRIPTION

Labor Relations Manager 2

This is the second supervisory and program management level. Incumbents provide consultation to State management and are responsible for labor relations operations in very large departments. Incumbents serve as the highest level management staff in the department actively involved in the labor relations program and work under highly independent conditions. Typically, incumbents will supervise a full labor relations staff either directly or through subordinate supervisors.

EXAMINATION SCOPE

This examination consists of the following components:

Training and Experience Evaluation – Weighted 100% of the final score.

The examination will consist solely of a Training and Experience Evaluation. To obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum score of 70% must be received. Applicants will receive their score upon completion of the Training and Experience Evaluation process.

In addition to evaluating applicants' relative knowledge, skills, and ability, as demonstrated by quality and breadth of education and/or experience, emphasis in each exam component will be measuring competitively, relative job demands, each applicant's:

Knowledge of:

1. General principles, practices, and trends of labor-management relations, public administration, human resources, business administration, and the Ralph C. Dills Act.
2. State management practices to effectively administer all labor relations policies, practices, and procedures to provide effective guidance to departmental personnel staff.
3. Grievance and complaint procedures in order to effectively analyze and respond to grievances and complaints.
4. Public sector personnel management practices in order to effectively prepare for bargaining and respond to employee and/or union grievances, complaints and disputes, and advise managers/supervisors on labor relations-related questions and issues.
5. Negotiation strategies, tactics, and impasse procedures in order to effectively represent departmental management in the bargaining process.
6. The state and federal labor laws applicable to the public sector to effectively analyze and respond to employee and/or union complaints and disputes and to advise managers/supervisors on labor relations issues.

Ability to:

1. Interpret the Memorandum of Understanding/labor agreements in order to handle labor related matters.

2. Communicate effectively with various audiences (e.g., unions, management, staff, executives, lawyers) in order to achieve resolution for grievances, complaints, and disputes.
3. Maintain confidentiality to preserve the integrity of labor relations issues and related matters.
4. Evaluate and make recommendations for resolving disputes, complaints and employee grievances.
5. Present and defend the employer's positions to state control agencies, unions, and other departments.
6. Conduct research using various resources in order to obtain, compile, and/or support information/data regarding labor relations activities, departmental policies and procedures and apply the information to current projects.
7. Reason logically, analyze situations, develop and evaluate alternatives and take effective action with regards to complex labor related matters.
8. Facilitate meetings and discussions in a manner that ensures that participants stay focused on the intended topic and encourages active participation by all attendees.
9. Coach and mentor staff with regards to prioritizing and completing multiple projects within timelines and expectations.
10. Serve as an advisor and/or representative for various programs and/or projects, interacting with all levels of management, staff, and internal/external stakeholders regarding complex or sensitive issues.
11. Develop and present training programs for managers/supervisors in order to provide updated and standardized information.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION

A servicewide, open eligible list for the Labor Relations Manger 1 classification will be established for the State of California (all State of California departments, statewide).

The names of successful competitors will be merged onto the eligible list in order of final score regardless of exam date. Eligibility expires six (6) months after it is established. Applicants must then retake the examination to reestablish eligibility. Veterans' Preference will be granted for this examination. In accordance with Government Codes 18973.1 and 18973.5, whenever any veteran, or widow or widower of a veteran achieves a passing score on an open examination, he or she shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligible list.

Veterans status is verified by the California Department of Human Resources (CalHR). Information on this program and the Veterans' Preference Application (Std. form 1093) is available online. Additional information on veteran benefits is available at the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Career Credits will not be added to the final score for this exam, because it does not meet the requirements to qualify for Career Credits.
